I am very pleased that you and Mr. Jackson have accepted our invitation to attend our Annual Convention at Whiteface Inn next month, and to address our Publishers on psychological warfare and the work of the Central Intelligence Agency.

We are scheduling you on our program for Monday morning, September 10th.

I will appreciate your advising me approximately how much time you desire, and how you prefer to be listed on the program, including the subject of your discussion. We hope to send the final copy to the printers next Monday or Tuesday, so an early reply would be appreciated.

I will be glad to have hotel reservations made for you and Mr. Jackson if you will advise me when you plan to arrive.

I know that all of our Publishers will be very pleased at the opportunity of meeting you and listening to your remarks.

Sincerely,

E. A. O'Hara
President
